O Thou, the central Orb of righteous love, pure beam of the most High, eternal light of this our wintry world, thy radiance bright awakes new joy in faith; hope soars above. Come, quickly come, and let thy glory shine, gilding our darksome heaven with rays divine. Thy saints with holy lustre round thee move, as stars about thy throne, set in the height of God's ordaining counsel, as thy sight gives measured grace to each, thy power to prove. Let thy bright beams disperse the gloom of sin; our nature all shall feel eternal day, in fellowship with thee, transforming day to souls erewhile unclean, now pure within. Amen.

Lester C. Randall Preaching Fellowship October 30 – 31, 2010

Special Guest Speaker

Rev. Dr. Molly T. Marshall, Shawnee, Kansas, U.S.A.

Lecture

Saturday, October 30, 10:30 am - Cameron Hall

"Telling it Slant: Preaching on the Trinitarian Life of God"

The doctrine of the Trinity holds great promise for renewing congregational life. Thought to be an esoteric doctrine only for professional theologians, it actually describes God's life with us and our life with one another. Because it is about the richness of relationship and requires poetic language, the preacher must "tell it slant" in the words of Emily Dickinson.

First Sermon

Sunday, October 31, 11:00 am

"God Plays all the Roles"

Genesis 1: 1:1-2; Proverbs 8:1-5; 1 John 5: 7

Second Sermon

Sunday, October 31, 7:00 pm

"The Church as Icon of the Trinity"

Matthew 28:19-20; 2 Corinthians 13:11-13

THE REV. DR. MOLLY T. MARSHALL is the President and Professor of Theology and Spiritual Formation at the Central Baptist Seminary in Shawnee, Kansas. While she has served as youth minister, campus minister, and pastor in churches across Oklahoma, Texas, Arkansas and Kentucky, Molly's great passion is theological education, or in her words, "forming people for transforming ministries." During her tenure as president, Central Baptist Seminary has grown, moved and expanded. Molly has been imaginative in her design of theological education developing satellite campuses in Tennessee and Wisconsin and an urban core initiative program as well as courses online.

Dr. Marshall's focus for the weekend - preaching on the Trinitarian life of God - reflects some of her most recent thinking in which she brings the mind of a scholar and the heart of a pastor to bear on one of the most vital doctrines of the church for today.

A graduate of Oklahoma Baptist University she completed both her M.Div. and Ph.D. at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. She has also engaged in studies at the Tantur Ecumenical Institute in Jerusalem, Cambridge University and Princeton Seminary where she was also a Visiting Scholar. She has presented academic papers at numerous conferences and keeps a very busy preaching schedule. Her writings include three monographs, No Salvation Outside the Church, What It Means to be Human, and Joining the Dance: a theology of the Spirit, as well as numerous articles and chapters in other publications and a blog on the seminary website at <http://mtmarshall.blogspot.com/>

Molly's ordination credentials are with the American Baptist Churches USA and she is a member of the Prairie Baptist Church in Prairie Village, Kansas.
