494

COME Thou fount of every blessing,
Tune my heart to sing Thy grace;
Streams of mercy never ceasing
Call for songs of loudest praise.
Teach me some melodious measure,
Sung by flaming tongues above.
O the vast, the boundless treasure,
Of my Lord's unchanging love!

- 2 Here I raise my Ebenezer,
Hither by Thy help I'm come,
And I hope, by Thy good pleasure,
Safely to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me when a stranger,
Wandering from the fold of God;
He, to rescue me from danger,
Interposed His precious blood.
- 3 O to grace how great a debtor
Daily I'm constrained to be!
Let that grace, Lord, like a fetter
Bind my wandering heart to Thee.
Prone to wander,—Lord, I feel it,—
Prone to leave the God I love:
Here's my heart, O take and seal it,
Seal it from Thy courts above.

Robert Robinson, 1735–90, altd.

O HAPPY home, where Thou art loved the dearest,
 Thou loving friend and Saviour of our race,
 And where among the guests there never cometh
 One who can hold such high and honoured place !

2 O happy home, where two in heart united
 In holy faith and blessed hope are one,
 Whom death a little while alone divideth,
 And cannot end the union here begun !

3 O happy home, whose little ones are given
 Early to Thee, in humble faith and prayer,
 To Thee, their friend, who from the heights of heaven
 Guides them, and guards with more than mother's care !

4 O happy home, where each one serves Thee, lowly,
 Whatever his appointed work may be,
 Till every common task seems great and holy,
 When it is done, O Lord, as unto Thee !

5 O happy home, where Thou art not forgotten,
 When joy is overflowing, full and free,
 O happy home, where every wounded spirit
 Is brought, physician, comforter, to Thee,—

6 Until at last, when earth's day's-work is ended,
 All meet Thee in the blessed home above,
 From whence Thou camest, where Thou hast
 ascended,
 Thy everlasting home of peace and love !

317

I HUNGER and I thirst;
Jesus, my manna be;
Ye living waters, burst
Out of the rock for me.

2 Thou bruised and broken bread,
My life-long wants supply;
As living souls are fed,
O feed me, or I die.

3 Thou true life-giving vine,
Let me Thy sweetness prove;
Renew my life with Thine,
Refresh my soul with love.

4 Rough paths my feet have trod,
Since first their course began;
Feed me, Thou bread of God;
Help me, Thou Son of Man.

5 For still the desert lies
My fainting soul before;
O living waters, rise
Within me evermore.

J. S. B. Monsell, 1811-75.

O the deep, deep love of Jesus

1. O the deep, deep love of Jesus!
Vast, unmeasured, boundless, free;
Rolling as a mighty ocean
In its fullness over me.
Underneath me, all around me,
Is the current of Thy love;
Leading onward, leading homeward,
To thy glorious rest above.
2. O the deep, deep love of Jesus!
Spread his praise from shore to shore;
How he loveth, ever loveth,
Changeth never, nevermore;
How he watches o'er His loved ones,
Died to call them all His own;
How for them He interceedeth,
Watcheth o'er them from the Throne.
3. O the deep, deep love of Jesus!
Love of ev'ry love the best:
'Tis an ocean vast of blessing,
'Tis a haven sweet of rest,
O the deep, deep love of Jesus!
'Tis a heav'n of heav'ns to me;
And it lifts me up to glory,
For it lifts me up to Thee.

Blessings of the Cross:
A Lenten Bible Study
Based on the Revised Common Lectionary
Robert Martin Walker, Author

The Blessings of Thirst

Exodus 17:1-7

Romans 5:1-11

John 4:5-42

The third lesson in the Lenten series asks us to focus on our thirsts. A thirsty person has but one agenda, finding a way to quench it. In the words of our author, “Thirst, and other pressing needs, can be an opportunity to express trust in God.” In the Exodus text, the children of Israel when facing a serious drought, allowed their circumstances to undermine their faith in God and God’s representative. They complained and quarrelled. They confused physical discomfort with the absence of God’s protection. They forgot all that God had done in bringing them out of Egypt, crossing the Red Sea on dry land and feeding them manna from heaven. We do not want to treat God like a vending machine, placing our requests in and looking to ‘blessings’ to fall down immediately. God may not come when we want, but God is always on time!

In the Epistle to the church at Rome, the Apostle Paul speaks of another human thirst—the one relationship and reconciliation. Paul believes that the faith that restored the relationship between Abraham and God is available to all of us, in Jesus Christ. We are ‘justified’ or reconciled to God because of the great sacrifice made by Jesus Christ on the cross. “Our thirst for God is a blessing because it leads us to seek reconciliation and to discover that it has already been offered to us as a gift.”

The gospel lesson ties together the thirst quenching water of Meribah and Massah to the thirst quenching water of Jesus Christ. The story of the woman at the well can only be found in the gospel of John and provides a delightful look at God making the extra effort necessary to reach those on the fringes of the community; first as a Samaritan, then as a female and then as a sinner. Her questions seem to indicate a deep spiritual thirst, one only belief in Jesus Christ as Saviour could quench. Along with this female/outsider/sinner we are invited to receive the living water of Christ and live abundantly, never to thirst again.

If you are not in a Lenten Study Group, you may still study along with us by contacting the Rev. Cheryle Hanna at 416-922-1167 x235.

AN UPDATE FROM RUPEN DAS...

1) As Rupen and his team are completing the study on poverty in Lebanon, please continue to pray as there is much writing and editing to do over the next month. The study will provide the basis for discussions on how the churches can complement their witness by responding to social needs. Two Baptist churches in Lebanon are already moving ahead in this area.

2) Rupen is currently applying for the renewal of his residence permit. Please pray that the process would be routine and the permit reissued without any problem.

Rupen writes that "in these uncertain times, we continue to experience a stability and joy that can only be explained as coming from the God who is the giver of life. Your prayers are key in sustaining us. Please find Rupen and Mamta's newsletter for a full update, on the bulletin board in the Centre Hall.
