The Rev. Cheryle Hanna

Christ with me, Christ before me, Christ behind me, Christ in me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ on my right, Christ on my left, Christ when I lie down, Christ when I sit down, Christ when I arise, Christ in the heart of every man who thinks of me, Christ in the mouth of everyone who speaks of me, Christ in every eye that sees me, Christ in every ear that hears me. I arise today through a mighty strength, the invocation of the Trinity, through belief in the threeness, through confession of the oneness, of the Creator of Creation. (St. Patrick 387-461)

150

WE sing the praise of Him who died,
Of Him who died upon the cross;
The sinner's hope let men deride,
For this we count the world but loss.

2 Inscribed upon the cross we see,
In shining letters, " God is love ";
He bears our sins upon the tree,
He brings us mercy from above.

3 The cross ! it takes our guilt away,
It holds the fainting spirit up ;
It cheers with hope the gloomy day,
And sweetens every bitter cup.

4 It makes the coward spirit brave,
And nerves the feeble arm for fight ;
It takes the terror from the grave,
And gilds the bed of death with light.

5 The balm of life, the cure of woe,
The measure and the pledge of love ;
The sinner's refuge here below,
The angels' theme in heaven above.

749

JESUS loves me ! this I know,
For the Bible tells me so ;
Little ones to Him belong ;
They are weak, but He is strong.
*Yes ! Jesus loves me !
The Bible tells me so.*

2 Jesus loves me ! He who died
Heaven's gate to open wide ;
He will wash away my sin,
Let His little child come in.

3 Jesus loves me ! He will stay
Close beside me all the way ;
Then His little child will take
Up to heaven, for His dear sake.

141

IN the cross of Christ I glory,
Towering o'er the wrecks of time:
All the light of sacred story
Gathers round its head sublime.

2 When the woes of life o'ertake me,
Hopes deceive, and fears annoy,
Never shall the cross forsake me;
Lo ! it glows with peace and joy.

3 When the sun of bliss is beaming
Light and love upon my way,
From the cross the radiance streaming
Adds more lustre to the day.

4 Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure,
By the cross are sanctified;
Peace is there that knows no measure,
Joys that through all time abide.

5 In the cross of Christ I glory,
Towering o'er the wrecks of time:
All the light of sacred story
Gathers round its head sublime.

462

BE Thou my vision, O Lord of my heart,
Be all else but naught to me, save that Thou
art;

Be Thou my best thought in the day and the night,
Both waking and sleeping, Thy presence my light.

2 Be Thou my wisdom, be Thou my true word;
Be Thou ever with me, and I with Thee, Lord;
Be Thou my great Father, and I Thy true son;
Be Thou in me dwelling, and I with Thee one.

3 Be Thou my breastplate, my sword for the fight;
Be Thou my whole armour, be Thou my true might;
Be Thou my soul's shelter, be Thou my strong
tower,
O raise Thou me heavenward, great power of my power.

4 Riches I heed not, nor man's empty praise,
Be Thou mine inheritance now and always;
Be Thou and Thou only the first in my heart;
O sovereign of heaven, my treasure Thou art.

5 High King of heaven, Thou heaven's bright sun,
O grant me its joys, after victory is won;
Great heart of my own heart, whatever befall,
Still be Thou my vision, O ruler of all.

*Ancient Irish, tr. Mary Byrne, 1881–1931.

CHURCH CONNECTORS

Do you enjoy visiting people; engaging them in conversation and helping them stay connected to our church family? If so, this may be a ministry that would interest you.

The Pastoral Care Committee is currently reviewing the Church Connector Visitation program here at Yorkminster Park. Our ministers visit people regularly, and follow up on pastoral concerns. But there is a need for other visitors who are willing to connect with members and adherents in a variety of settings, such as hospitals, private homes and extended care facilities. My experience as a pastor is that many people appreciate lay visitors who help keep them in touch with the church family on a regular basis. Hence, the need to revise and re-launch our Connectors Visitation program. With this in mind, we are having a meeting of prospective connectors in the Friendship Room immediately following the worship service TODAY. It will be an opportunity to discuss the program at more length, and outline expectations and responsibilities for connectors. If you are interested, please contact Dale Rose at drose@yorkminsterpark.com or Rhoda Hill at 416-922-1240.

Amazing Love

Isaiah 43:16-21; Philippians 3: 4b-14; John 12:1-8

We often say we 'love' this or we 'love' that and I guess we mean what we say, but do we love enough to lose everything and still love? God's people who had been displaced in Babylon, had in their memory God's activity for them during the Exodus; God had bought them out of Egypt, opened a path in the Red Sea and fed them with manna and quails for forty years. Yet, in the forty-third chapter of Isaiah the prophet bids them "Do not remember the former things, or consider the things of old. I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?" What God is about to do is greater and more wonderful than God has already done. Let's not allow our love affair with the past to cloud our vision of the goodness of God in the future. God is about to do something new!

Paul has a personal testimony of what we may need to give up to embrace God in Jesus Christ. Paul had to give up his great standing in the community, his worship of the Law and his personal righteousness and received in return the righteousness of God. Like our study author 'in a blink of an eye" (43) may lose everything by choice or by conviction by Holy Spirit. When we give up thoughts of ourselves and focus on emptying ourselves to others, trusting God and God alone and worshipping God because God is worthy of all praise that is real worship.

In the gospel of John we have a glimpse of the fullest worship one can give to God. In the twelfth chapter is the familiar story of Mary anointing the feet of Jesus with expensive perfume and then wiping Jesus' feet with her hair. Mary was engaged in worship. Mary loved Jesus and understood that Jesus was the Messiah, come to provide release for those captive and declare the acceptable year of the Lord. Mary understood that worship is about giving up everything to receive from God. Some wish to equate Mary's gift with Mary's sin and therefore suggesting that worship is an expression of our gratefulness to God. Be careful! All have sinned! We worship God because God is God not because God has done this or that for us; worship isn't about you or me, worship is about God. The last thing we want to do is be like Judas, questioning the value and necessity of someone's gift to God.
