

The congregation is invited to follow the Choir and the Ministers and assemble on the south lawn at the base of the tower.

Litany of Dedication of Memorial Bells

The Rev. Deborah Ban:

We present these bells that they might ring from this tower calling us to that which is higher and purer, more noble and true than eye hath seen or ear hath heard - calling us to the worship of the One true God.

People:

We dedicate these bells to the glory of God!

Three bells shall be rung

Gordon MacKay:

We present these bells that they might ring from this tower announcing the times and seasons teaching us to number our days that we might attain unto a heart of wisdom.

People:

We dedicate these bells to the glory of God!

Three bells shall be rung

Judy MacDonald:

We present these bells in memory of loved ones whose characters rang true for all who knew them. We pray that from their lofty place these bells might remind us of the great cloud of witnesses who inspire us to tune our lives to the character of Jesus Christ and sound forth in faithful service to God.

People:

We dedicate these bells to the glory of God!

Two bells shall be rung

The Rev. Dale Rose:

We present these bells that they might toll with those who mourn and peal with those who celebrate and alert us all to our calling in Christ, to weep with those who weep and rejoice with those who rejoice, as we seek to fulfill the command to love our neighbour as we love ourselves.

People:

We dedicate these bells to the glory of God!

Two bells shall be rung

The Rev. Dr. J. Peter Holmes:

We present these bells in thanksgiving for the goodness of the Father's creation and within it for the wonder of music. We present these bells that they might ring out the good news of Jesus Christ beneath whose cross the harmony of life is restored. We present these bells that they might call us to rejoice and serve in the power of the Holy Spirit.

People:

We dedicate these bells to the glory of God, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

A bell shall be rung three times

People:

(Prayer of St. Francis)

Lord make me an instrument of Thy peace; where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen

Benediction

The Rev. Dr. J. Peter Holmes

Choral Amen – Stanford in B

The Memorial Bells will peal for five minutes.

The bells will play a selection of familiar hymns for 15 minutes.

SHB – Supplementary Hymn Book "Sing to God's Glory"*